

FEAL National Conference
PRINCIPLES & VALUES
Charting your course through shifting societal expectations.
1 & 2 August 2018
Hilton Hotel, Sydney

Conference Program

9.00am	Jane Perry, Chair of FEAL: Welcoming comments and introduction of Jodie Hampshire, Managing Director, Australia, Russell Investments as MC.
9.15am	Sticking to your Principles: Peter Greste, journalist and Professor, UNESCO Chair of Journalism and Communications at the University of Queensland.
10.15am	Staying True: When should individual and corporate values evolve?: Associate Professor Andrew John, Associate Dean, Faculty, MBS.
11.15am	Morning Break
11.40am	Panel session: Evolving your leadership style. How our values might change over time and impact on our style of leadership: Andrew Spence, CIO, Qantas Super, Michael Dwyer AM, CEO, First State Super, Louise Davidson, CEO, ACSL. Chair: Amanda White, Conexus.
12.40pm	Lunch Break
1.40pm	Directors and the Community: Changing Expectations, Increasing Accountabilities: Angus Armour, CEO, AICD.
2.25pm	The economic and market implications of shifting societal values: Graham Harman, Asia Pac Head of Investment Strategy, Russell Investments.
3.10pm	Afternoon Break
3.30pm	What sport teaches us: A playbook for values driven leadership: Carden Calder, MD, BlueChip Communication, in conversation with Sam Mostyn, Non-executive director, Sustainability Adviser and Sydney Swans board member.
4.15pm	What does it mean to be a global citizen in an interconnected world of digital connectivity and ongoing AI (artificial intelligence) driven disruptions? Why should we change? How should we change? Does it matter? Attracta Lagan, Co-principal of Managing Values Ltd
5.00pm	Jodie Hampshire: Closing comments and invitation to drinks.

Presented in partnership with

